

Blessings to the baby
Who was knit within your womb.
And blessings to you, Mommy,
For whom all this is new:
I'm sure you have some doubts and fears
As every mother does,
But trust in God and seek Him;
He will guide you by His love.
This life within you is a gift
From heaven up above
And it will teach you many things
About the Father's love.
So take His hand and walk with Him
And bring your baby, too,
And you will leave a legacy
To follow after you.
